NOTE: For complicated donation types (e.g. cash and flier miles separated between three different funds) please indicate any preferences as far as division of cash and non-cash donations.

¹General Fund: ISQOLS FOUNDATION is a foundation recognized by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The foundation allows people and organizations to make tax-deductible contributions.

²Presidents' Fund: The Presidents' Fund is an endowment fund (i.e., the corpus of the fund will not be spent). The interest/dividends will be spent to (1) to support honoree travel to our main conferences, (2) to support our own more independent, publication activities, and (3) to enhance financial stability of the organization.

³Mary Joyce Fund: To honor the memory and life's work of Dr. Joyce, at an ISQOLS board meeting held in San Diego on December 10, 2007, the board voted unanimously to establish the Mary Joyce Scholarship Award. This competitive scholarship will be a biennial award recognizing a young, female scholar from a developing country for work in the quality of life area. The recipient will receive a cash stipend covering the cost of travel to and attendance at the ISQOLS international conference, as well as award recognition at the conference banquet.
